"Intelligent Luxury Made Possible by Global Innovation"

Over the years the building industry has evolved with new and exciting contemporary products, realizing this, STUDIOLUX has developed a line-up of products with unique designs and features that would appeal to a wide range of designers, architects and consumers.

STUDIOLUX's intelligent offering has taken years of cumulative effort from our inhouse design team, engineers, and dedicated craftsman to bring you the most luxurious bathroom experience.

STUDIOLUX's global team continuously fuses its expertise to create the highest quality innovative products. From our SLi 1000 auto flush tankless toilet to the top of the line SLi 4000 intelligent bidet toilet, with these models StudioLux is confident that we developed the right product for everyday living.
